dedication . .

*I*N dedicating our college yearbook to Harry Alvin Wallace we feel that the College is honored.

Mr. Wallace is a business man of outstanding achievement. No resident of the capital city is more highly respected in business and social circles than Mr. Wallace. In early life he became identified with the oil and gas business in his native state of Pennsylvania. From a humble beginning in the business he has forged his way step by step to a place of national recognition. He is a past president of the Natural Gas Association of America. His social interests are represented, chiefly, by his membership in the Methodist Church, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and Rotary International.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are the parents of five children, two daughters, Mildred and Virginia, and three sons, Harry, jr., Frank, and Robert. Harry, jr. and Frank, are associated in the work of the United Fuel Gas Company.

While Mr. Wallace's life has been devoted to business activities he is a believer in education and the editors of the Harveyan count it a privilege to present him as a friend of Morris Harvey.

RESUME OF ALPHA MU

Alpha Mu was organized on October 14, 1925 and was the first sorority on the Morris Harvey campus. It was founded on the mythology of the Greek muses, the goddess of the various arts and sciences; and the name Alpha Mu, "Sisters of the Muses," was chosen for the organization. It has been the practice of Alpha Mu to follow each year a definite literary program of study. Alpha Mu has a two-fold purpose in that several social events are also sponsored annually. These events include the annual carnival and the spring formal banquet.

Phi Lambda Tau Sorority was founded in 1929 on the Morris Harvey campus in Barboursville.

HIGHLIGHTS OF PHI LAMBDA TAU

While the Phi Lambda Tau members are enjoying the contacts of their group, they are also interested in girls who do not have an opportunity to attend college. Because of this a sixty dollar scholarship loan has been established to aid a freshmen coed each year.

Phi Lambda Tau is the only sorority at the college to publish a private newspaper, "The Re-Echo."

Of four May Queens chosen by popular vote of the student body, one has been a Phi Lambda Tau. Out of five girls from Morris Harvey to be listed in WHO'S WHO AMONG COLLEGE STUDENTS, three Phi Lambda Tau's claim that honor.

The present membership of Phi Lambda Tau expects the sorority to continue its spirit of friendship, its service to the school and to continue its high ideals for which it is known.

On March 14, 1923, six students of Morris Harvey college met and formed a social club, out of which organization grew the present Zeta Kappa National Social Fraternity.

SOMETHING OF ZETA KAPPA

(Morris Harvey's oldest Greek letter organization)

Among its accomplishments Zeta Kappa boasts of being the only fraternal organization to have private headquarters near the campus since the college has been located in Charleston.

Semi-monthly luncheon meetings are held as well as frequent evening meetings. Birthday dinners on March 14 are a regular part of Zeta Kappa's social calendar, and each year the fraternity has an annual banquet near the close of the school year.

THE COMET

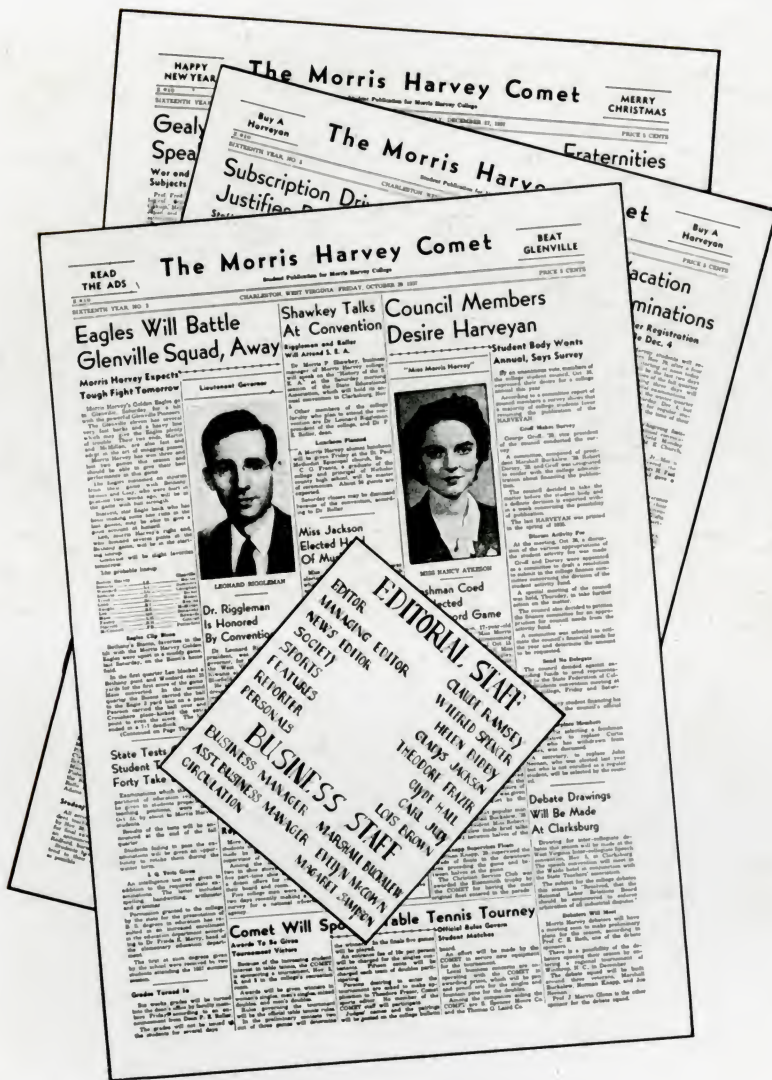

The Comet, student newspaper of Morris Harvey, is issued semi-monthly during the academic year as an extra-curricular activity. Each year the paper sends delegates to the West Virginia Inter-collegiate Press conventions, issues an April Fool edition, "the meteor," and ends the term with a press banquet.

Mrs. Eleanor Stone Thornhill is faculty adviser for the paper. Besides news coverage of Morris Harvey, the Comet has three columnists, Miller Gwinn, Charles Akers and the anonymous, "Eagle."

First college paper in the state to sponsor regular radio broadcasts.

First college paper in the state to adopt streamlined headlines.

Member of Associated Collegiate Press.

Member of West Virginia Inter-collegiate Press Association.

Represented for national advertising by National Advertising Service, Inc.

Approved as advertising medium by Charleston Retail Credit Association.

The cheering department has had as its main objective for the past year increased school spirit and loyalty. Toward this goal it has been responsible for the promotion of pep meetings of many types, the most unusual being held on the stage of a local theatre.

The most outstanding work of the cheerleaders was sponsoring the elaborate home-coming parade between halves of the Concord-Morris Harvey football game. Floats representing every school organization participated. The pageant was climaxed with the crowning of "Miss Morris Harvey" and recognition to the college's most popular man and woman student.

DR. HENRY R. GLASS

EAGLES' FRIEND . . .

ONE of the most loyal followers of the Golden Eagles is Dr. Glass, team physician, who is a graduate of Morris Harvey. Because of his deep interest in the college, his affable disposition and his splendid cooperation with our athletic department, the Harveyan staff is happy to dedicate the sports section to him.

GOLDEN EAGLE SQUAD

FOOTBALL RESUME

The football season of 1937 was one of the most successful in the history of Morris Harvey—not only from the standpoint of games won, but also because of the revived spirit of the student body, alumni and local citizens.

During the summer months everyone, however remotely interested in Morris Harvey, heard plenty about the coming season. It was in the newspapers, on the radio, and traveling from lip to lip and tongue to tongue. Long before the season opened there was a feeling of refreshed spirit and renewed strength, because a new athletic era was coming to the College. Coaches Thurman "Jule" Ward and A. H. "Pop" Werner, both graduates of Duke University, ushered in the new regime.

Eagles Down Marietta

On September 24 the new edition of Morris Harvey's football team was brought forth for the initial showing against a strong Marietta, Ohio, team. Morris Harvey was rated as the underdog, but this new team dug their cleats into the vanishing sod of Laidley field and loosened a powerful, demoralizing line that withstood every assault Marietta could bring against it. The front line looked like the powerful, overwhelming surge of an ocean wave. Neither team could gain much on offense, but at the beginning of the fourth quarter, Dell Pauley intercepted a pass and scooted forty-five yards for a touchdown; Rex Mace kicked the extra point. It was well he did, for the Marietta team came back with blood in its eyes and something akin to murder in its heart. During the last few seconds of the game they scored with an amazing series of lateral passes, but the line of Morris Harvey proved to be equal to the situation and repelled the attempt to garner an extra point, and Morris Harvey emerged victor with a 7-6 score.

Defeat Salem, Lose to Potomac State

The next week-end on October 1 the squad journeyed to Salem, and on that sunny afternoon they trimmed the claws of the Tigers with a score of 6-0, after Rex Mace threw Mathew Lee a pass in the closing minutes of the ball game.

With two games under their belts the boys traveled to Keyser to meet Potomac State on October 9. It was a cold day with snow and rain competing for honors on a low, marshy field. The teams see-sawed back and forth on the muddy field but in the second quarter Potomac State managed to squeeze over a touchdown that proved to be the winning score, as the game ended 7-0.

Somewhat sobered by this defeat, the boys determined to do better the next time. They went up against Concord with determination to win on the night of October 15. It was the homecoming game for Morris Harvey, and the boys staged a willing but losing battle before a large enthusiastic crowd. Morris Harvey drew first blood on a pass from Mace to Dell Pauley. Then Concord tied the count. Later in the second half Starrett gave the crowd a thrill when he ran some 60 yards for the second Morris Harvey touchdown. But Concord was not to be denied. They came back and scored almost immediately to tie the count at 13-13. In the closing minutes of the ball game they pushed over another score to win, 19-12.

Swamp Bethany, 27-6

This made the season a 50-50 proposition. But when the lads went to Bethany on October 23 they scored an impressive victory with the final score of 26-7.

The sixth game was played at Glenville, October 30, on a soggy gridiron. It was a gruelling contest that taxed the strength of both teams to the utmost. The final score was 6-12, giving Glenville a hard-earned victory by six points.

This again made the season average .500, but the next week on November 5 the boys romped on Bluefield College to make it four games won and three lost. Starrett scored again and the final count was 12-0.

Lose to New River

Then came the morning game with New River on November 11. It was a day of great celebration because of the community chest campaign, but when the game was over many Morris Harvey fans weren't feeling so good. The favored Eagle squad lost to a fighting New River team by a 6-7 count.

The final game was with West Liberty on November 19 and the day dawned with a heavy blanket of snow on the ground. The game was cancelled at 11 o'clock, but re-called at 1 o'clock. At three both teams lined up and began a battle royal. But Morris Harvey clearly showed that it had the superior team and won with a score of 6-0.

Win 5 of 9 Games

So the first season under the Ward-Werner machine ended by winning five out of nine games to make an average of .555. Because the squad was composed mostly of freshmen, Eagle followers are looking to the 1938 season with optimism.

The Harveyan

Inaugurate Spring Practice

The first song of spring had hardly left the throats of the early birds when Coaches Ward and Werner issued the first call for football candidates to take part in spring practice.

The long-awaited call was answered by about forty candidates, many of them fresh from high school. The first few days the squad was kept busy limbering up and working on the fundamentals such as blocking, tackling and the Ward system of play that was so effective during the fall season.

With the addition of a few more candidates the team will be ready to dig into Ohio University next September for the first contest.

—Jennings Roberts.

CLAY IS ONLY GRADUATE

When the answer was made to the call at spring practice all of last year's team was there except the popular Captain Robert Clay from Barboursville. Since he is a member of the senior class he will not be with the Golden Eagles next year. The last season was a glorious finale for our captain and he will long be remembered by faithful fans of Morris Harvey.
